WHAT COMPETENT JUDGES SAY OF HIS BOOK.

"I am glad you had the energy to get this up. Almost all our other published Catalogues contain everything you don't want; give you the name of every member of the bar, good and bad, industrious and worthless; then you select from the whole batch, and you are just as likely to fall into the hands of the bad as of the good."

WM. A. SPONSLER,
New Bloomfield, Perry County, Pa.

"Am well satisfied with it, and consider it a valuable aid in collecting claims from absconding debtors, as it furnishes the address of an efficient attorney in any county in the United States, in which they may be found. I would not be without it."

J. B. CLELLAND,
Osage, Iowa.

"I must state that your plan is decidedly preferable to any I have had the pleasure of examining."

J. L. W. MATHEWS,
Perryville, Alabama.

"I think it a perfect success and a very valuable book."

W. I. HEYWARD,
Atlanta, Georgia.

"I think it will give entire satisfaction, not only to the legal profession, but to the general business world."

HAMILTON YANCEY,
Rome, Georgia.

"Your Catalogue is the thing, and supplies a need long felt. Pecuniarily, I have realized twenty fold."

W. J. HILLIGASS,
Bluffton, Indiana.

"We have examined the Catalogue and think, without question, it is good."

BLADES, KAY & EVANS,
Watseha, Illinois.

"I like the work, and it is certainly worth the money and much more."

O. H. WRIGHT,
Belvidere, Illinois.

"From the class of Attorneys you have in your book, judging by those known to me, and the completeness of the list, I think it well worth the price asked."

S. S. WHITEHEAD,
Marshall, Illinois.

"I find the Catalogue very useful."

H. RICHEL,
West Union, Iowa.

"The Catalogue is worth ten times its cost to us."

STEVENS & SOUTHWICK,
Onawa, Iowa.

"Your Catalogue is valuable to lawyers and business men generally."

WM. STEWART,
Columbia, Kentucky.

"I am satisfied with it. You have made very good selections."

J. G. KOESTER,
Carlinville, Illinois.

"Upon examination, I think it reliable."

A. LANDON,
Tiffin, Seneca County, Ohio.

"I consider the work one of much use and convenience. Most of the lawyers in Maryland are known to me personally, or by reputation, and I believe such to be reliable persons."

F. H. STOCKETT,
Annapolis, Maryland.

"I have received a copy of your Catalogue of Reliable Attorneys, and am well pleased with it. I find it of great benefit to me prosecuting claims outside of my own State in fact it is the very thing I have long needed."

FRANKLIN BATES,
Perryville, Arkansas.

"In the various counties in S. E. Missouri your selection of attorneys is good; better than any I have seen."

M. L. CLARDY,
Farmington, Missouri.

"I am highly pleased with your Catalogue and have thoroughly examined it. It is the very thing the better class of our profession want."

J. W. McCANN,
Paris, Missouri.

"It is just the thing I wanted, and am glad of a chance to get it."

G. T. WHITE,
Jefferson City, Missouri.

"I am much pleased with the Catalogue as it supplies, in compact form, a need of every practicing lawyer."

D. T. EASTON,
Owego, N. Y.

"We have carefully examined the work and think it the best executed of any similar work we have yet seen."

LAWRENCE & LAWRENCE,
Bellefontaine, Ohio.

"We are very much pleased with your work, and think it meets a need long felt by the profession."

BENTON, HILL & CROSS,
St. Albans, Vermont.

"This is certainly a valuable enterprise on your part, and the usefulness of the Catalogue renders the price merely nominal."

J. D. AUGUSTIN,
Edgar P. O., Louisiana.

"I find the list very satisfactory, you having in every place within my knowledge, a good name or firm."

J. JUMP,
Newport, Indiana.

"We are highly pleased with the work and wish you abundant success in its publication."

TO THE PUBLIC.

The many favorable opinions of my carefully prepared compilation, (some of which are exhibited on the inside pages of the cover), which have been received by me since the appearance of the first edition, now exhausted, are my excuse or warrant for publishing a second and revised edition. Its general usefulness is apparent at a glance. That the name of no Attorneys may be contained herein, except such as are honest and reliable, is my chief desire; and I will be specially thankful to any one, who, in looking over or using this Catalogue, may discover any Attorney therein named, who is not RELIABLE, and who does not merit confidence or business, to advise me of the fact.

Persons using this Catalogue, by addressing any Attorney therein named, will confer a favor upon me by stating to the party addressed, that his name was obtained from this source.

I intend an annual publication hereof, and desire to make all necessary corrections, in order that the Catalogue will always continue to merit the same confidence of competent judges, which it now receives.

The States and Counties are alphabetically arranged, and the population of Counties are those of the United States Census of 1870.

GLITCH'S IMPERIAL RUSSIAN MUSTARD!

The Best Mustard in the World.

The Meriden (Conn.) Daily Recorder says: There is an article for the table called GLITCH'S RUSSIAN MUSTARD, and W. H. T. Frueauff, of Columbia, Pa., introduced it into America. It is an elegant condiment—the purest and best mustard in the world, unequalled in strength and flavor. It combines what no other mustard does—the taste and smell of horse radish with that of mustard. We can most heartily recommend it as the most delicious mustard in the world.

JONATHAN T. ROHRER, West Chester, Pa., says: I had the pleasure of receiving by mail, the can of RUSSIAN MUSTARD. I find it the best article I have ever met with; I am delighted with it; I shall take pleasure in introducing it to my customers; it is doing our people much good; it is a valuable medical agent, and, as such, all our leading physicians prescribe it. I know that my sale will be large here, as all the leading families who have tried it are quite enthusiastic about it.

COL. R. F. MOSON the famous restaurateur, says: "I am free to state that the RUSSIAN MUSTARD is the best I have ever used. I desire no better, for I don't believe it can be found in the United States or anywhere else. My patrons prefer the Russian to all other mustards. The purity, strength and quality commend it to hotels, families and restaurants as the cheapest."

The Army and Navy Journal, New York says: "The RUSSIAN MUSTARD, of which we had the pleasure of trying a can, has an unusual merit on account of its possessing a flavor and piquancy peculiar to itself. It is perfectly pure, although having the delightful flavor of horse radish. We can safely recommend it to all our readers, as Professor Silliman, of Yale College; Doctor Coppee; Professor Bolton, Columbia School of Mines; Col. Wm. P. Prentice, L. L. D., Counsel to the Health Board of New York; Col. Frank Gallagher, of South Carolina; Commodore Whitting, U. S. N.; Gen. James Oakes, U. S. A.; General Sutter, the discoverer of gold in California; Prof. J. P. Kimball, Lehigh University; Hon. S. S. Blair, Hollidaysburg, Pa.; and thousands of others of our most respected and prominent citizens use it.

Ask your druggist or grocer for it.

names, and did not then wish to join

receiving your catalogue was to return it,

HALE & SCOTT,
Paris, Lamar county, Texas.

Your plan for obtaining reliable attorneys is the best that has come under my observation. It will supercede in a great measure the numerous collecting agencies,
the selection of attorneys is not always good, and will greatly facilitate the collection of claims. I consider your book of great use to the profession.

J. F. FRUEAUFF'S European Collection Agency,

[ESTABLISHED 1860.]

Columbia, Lancaster County, Pa.

CORRESPONDENCE SOLICITED.

Scattered throughout the United States are many persons, Europeans and their descendants, who have claims for debts, or inheritances, upon persons and estates in Germany, Holland, France or Great Britain.

These are often old, and difficult of proof, but none the less good, and if carefully and energetically conducted, large sums can frequently be secured. A single case will not warrant an attorney in preparing himself with all the needed forms, and studying up the various local statutes covering such collections, but where many of them are gathered together, it can be done to great advantage for the claimants. With this object in view, I commenced the collection of such claims in 1860, after having previously studied and travelled several years in Europe, where I made the personal acquaintance of leading and reliable resident attorneys, who co-operate with me in these collections. Since then I have collected numerous claims, and now have a large number in process of collection. Many persons know of such claims who are interested in having directions as to how to proceed, or, when commenced, how to go on. To all such I can offer special inducements.

Being known to all the Banks and Bankers, Judges and Attorneys, of this County, as well as business men of this town, I take pleasure in referring to any of them.

Parties may address me in either French, German or English, and will be answered in whatever language preferred.

Any legal business or collections in Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, promptly attended to. Address

J. F. FRUEAUFF,
ATTORNEY AND COUNSELOR AT LAW,
Columbia, Lancaster County, Pa.
